

Recommended Winter Trails

Park City and surrounding areas

Round Valley Area

Quinns Trailhead

- Description: The go-to trailhead for the famous Round Valley Trail System. With plenty of parking, restrooms, and access to over 30km of groomed multi-use Nordic trails and 18 miles of groomed, multi-use singletrack, it's no surprise it's the place to be during the winter season. New this year are an additional two km of Nordic trails and a 100% single track, multi-use loop. Find current conditions at MountainTrails.org
- Groomed Singletrack: Rambler, Matt's Flat, PorcUclimb, Down Dog, Backslide, the Big Easy, and more
- Groomed Nordic Trails: Quinn's Loops, Matt's Flat, Silver Quinn, Barrel Roll, Land of Oz (no dogs), Two Pines, Round Valley Express, Hanscom's Hollow, and more
- Parking Spaces: 100+
- Overflow Parking Available: No
- Restrooms: Yes

North Round Valley Trailhead

- Description: North Round Valley Trailhead is home to the "Crooked Mile," a 1.6 km (one mile) groomed Nordic loop. Due to a property ownership gap, this Nordic loop is isolated from the rest of the Round Valley Nordic system, making it a little less traveled. Other single track trails do connect to the Round Valley Winter Trail system.
- Groomed Singletrack: Happy Gillmor, Tin Man
- Groomed Nordic Trails: Crooked Mile
- Parking Spaces: 15
- Overflow Parking Available: Yes
- Restrooms: Yes (1 ADA portable toilet)

Old Ranch Road Trailhead

- Description: The Old Ranch Road Trailhead is a great place to escape the normal Round Valley Crowds and enjoy magnificent views of the Wasatch Mountains. With no maintained routes leading in or out of the trailhead you will likely only see foot/snowshoe traffic and you can quickly connect to groomed singletrack by following Happy Gilmore or Rambler Trails. The unmaintained sections of trails usually become packed in by foot traffic quickly after snowstorms.
- Trails: Happy Gillmor, Rambler, Rademan Ridge, La Dee Duh
- Parking Spaces: 9
- Overflow Parking Available: No
- Restrooms: No

Park City East

PC Hill Trailhead

- Description: PC Hill Trail is an excellent workout on foot or snowshoes with rewarding views on top. Feeling ambitious? Connect to Round Valley Trails for a more extended outing. The adjacent North 40 fields can make a great practice area for those learning to classic ski (no winter maintenance) in this area, so you'll have to make your own classic tracks!
- Trails: PC Hill Trail
- Parking Spaces: 100+
- Overflow Parking Available: Yes
- Restrooms: No

Clark Ranch

- Description: Clark Ranch is a great place to explore! New for the 20-21 season Mountain Trails will be grooming a 2+ Mile fat bike/snowshoe trail (check out their grooming updates for info). The area is great for people who don't mind making their own trails too! Classic skis or a set of snowshoes will open the doors on this ample open space of sagebrush, scrub oak, and rolling hills.
- Trails: TBD
- Parking Spaces: 100+(Out of Quinn's TH)
- Overflow Parking Available: No
- Restrooms: No

Prospector Park

- Description: Prospector Park sits on the Prospector neighborhood's outskirts and has easy access to both the Nordic Groomed Historic Rail Trail and Lost Prospector Area Trails (no winter maintenance). The Historic Rail Trail is a 27 mile, 10-foot wide asphalt and gravel path. When conditions permit, a Utah State Park sub-contractor grooms the entire stretch. The Lost Prospector trails lie on a mostly North-facing hillside and hold snow well throughout the winter.
